

HOW DOES COMPARATIVE LITERATURE COMBINE WITH A FOREIGN LANGUAGE MAJOR?

If you have a major in another language with a literature focus, you may be able to add a CMLIT major with 12-18 credits.

	Credits
• CMLIT 100	3
• CMLIT 010	3
• CMLIT 400Y	3
• CMLIT 4XX (any 400-level CMLIT course)	3

NOTE: 12 of the credits below must be at the 400 level.

Supporting courses in comparative literature

- Choose any TWO additional CMLIT courses. 6

OR take these Comparative Literature courses for your General Education Humanities requirement, in which case they are not 6 additional credits!

Foreign language

- Choose TWO foreign language courses beyond the 003 level. Double 6 credits

Additional courses

- Choose FOUR literature courses in the department of your foreign language major. Double 12 credits
(These must be literature courses.)

Contact our honors adviser, Sydney Aboul-Hosn (sra113@psu.edu), or our Academic Adviser, Julianna Chaszar (<http://www.la.psu.edu/advising-appt/>) to discuss how this double major may fit into your individual degree audit.
